THE RAILROAD CANDIDATE

That Steneman is the railroad candidate is established by the record; and it is about the time the false pretense that he is an anti-monopolist and a friend of the people, as against the great railway corporations, was exposed, and his true character stated as disclosed by the records of the San José Convention and the organs of the party, especially the San Francisco Examiner.

The best evidence as to who nominated Steneman is the fact that what is understood and known to be the railroad vote, divided between Taylor and Johnson, finally went for Steneman instead of Hearst, and nominated him. What is the proof?

On the eighth ballot the vote stood: Hearst, 159; Steneman, 132; Johnson, 54; Taylor, 84; Berry, 25. On the twelfth ballot the vote stood as follows: Hearst, 174; Steneman, 189; Johnson, 14; Taylor, 75.

The reader will see that while Hearst received only 15, Steneman gained 57; and Johnson lost 40, and Taylor 9, and in the fourteenth and final ballot Hearst lost 4, Johnson 13, and Taylor 1, while the railroad vote of Johnson and Taylor, who all along had held the balance of power, was thrown for Steneman, and by which, and only which, he was nominated—and who has ever since the nomination of Estebe been receiving the railway support. This much the Examiner of the 25th June admits; and if we needed any other evidence, the attitude of the railway organs ought to be sufficient, viz: the Record-Union, The Argonaut, and the Spirit of the Times, the last of which is recognized as the most spite and truculent railway organ in the whole State—and the three last, claiming to be Republican and opposing Mr. Estebe, the Republican candidate, because of order received from the corner of Fourth and Townsend streets.

Who will say, hereafter, in the light of these facts, that Steneman is not the railroad candidate, and does not receive their support?

Let farmers and shippers examine this question, and particularly Greenbackers, for we challenge investigation and are ready with proof.

THE SAN JOSE Mercury recently accused Welcker, Democratic candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, of perjury, in this: that he was at one time a West Point cadet, educated, fed and clothed at the expense of the government; that before entering that military school he took solemn oath to support the Constitution and defend his government against its enemies; and that he afterwards went into the service of the rebels and sought to overthrow the government he had sworn to support. This showing makes the case against for Welcker and against his opponent, Waterman, who served his country as a soldier in the Union army. Grayback editors are at liberty to yell "bloody shirt" at this remark.

Said McGarvey, of Menlo Park, in the Democratic State Convention: "I urged on the committee that we were throwing a fire-brand into the ranks of our party by adopting the plank abolishing Sunday, and that it would result and ruin us. I now admonish you that it will have that result, unless this motion to amend prevails." The admonition was approved by the convention with contempt, and the party stands committed to the repeal of the Sunday law, to the destruction of the laboring man's rest day, and to the conversion of the time-honored Sunday of our fathers into a carnival day for the benefit of King Gambrinus and his disorderly followers.

JOSEPH N. DOLPH, the newly-elected Senator from Oregon, is pronounced the ablest lawyer in the State; is 47 years old; is a railroad vice president under Villard; is rich, honest and a Republican. It is believed that his election saved the Republican party from a hopeless rupture, which would inevitably have rent it in twain had Mitchell been successful. It is a happy result, upon which the Republicans of Oregon are to be congratulated.

MEN AND WOMEN.

Father Ryan, the Southern poet, is lecturing for a Confederate monument fund.

Anna Dickinson has written to the editor of the Omaha Herald that she no longer advocates woman suffrage.

Tennyson's new play, originally written for Henry Irving, is said to be a very pretty and simple episode of rural life.

Senator Hale of Maine is in such poor health that he will be unable to make any more speeches in this fall's political contest.

London gossip says that Mrs. Langtry, finding how much is expected of her beauty in America, where she has just arrived, has become better looking.

Senator Cameron of Wisconsin has been the guest of Senator Fair, both in San Francisco and at Santa Cruz.

The Nevada Senator placed a private car at the disposal of Mr. Cameron, over the South Pacific Coast Railroad during his visit in San Francisco.

The venerable ex-Senator Eaton has been nominated for Congress in one of the districts of Connecticut, and the veteran, Hon. Montgomery Blair, a member of Lincoln's first Cabinet, has been nominated for Congress in one of the districts of Maryland. Extremes meet; in the next district to Eaton's, young Mitchell, aged 29, has been nominated for Congress, and one of the Congressional nominees in Maryland is only 26.

"Conkling," says the author of the Tribune's Broadway Note Book, "appeared to my eyes, last week, wearing a plug hat, otherwise a silk cylinder, instead of the little cap, steamer hat and la-de-das he has heretofore used to sit lightly on that majestic scion. 'What intellect he's got into him,' said Barney Biglin, reflectively, as the great man, with a following in of the centre, picked his way across Twenty-third street, bowing to an imaginary constituent every step or two."
